PRESS RELEASE

Wesley Named Warden of New Castle Co. Community Corrections Centers

Delaware Department of Correction (DOC) Commissioner Carl Danberg is pleased to announce that Steven Wesley has been named Warden of the New Castle County Community Corrections Centers, comprised of Plummer Community Corrections Center, the Women's Work Release & Treatment Center and the John L. Webb Community Corrections Center. Wesley, whose appointment becomes effective June 23, replaces Phil Morgan, who was recently named Warden at Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in Wilmington.

Wesley joins the DOC from the Delaware Department of Services for Children, Youth and Their Families, where he was Deputy Director of the Division of Youth Rehabilitative Services. Prior to becoming Deputy Director, he was Superintendent of the New Castle County Detention Center. He also worked in Juvenile Probation and Aftercare as a Senior Probation & Parole Officer - where he was assigned to Operation Safe Streets - an Office Supervisor and, ultimately, Regional Manager.

Additional law enforcement experience includes a stint as an Internal Affairs Investigator for the Oakland (CA) Police Department, as well as time as a Police, Gang & Narcotics Officer in Oakland and Fremont (CA).

A member of the American Correctional Association (ACA), Wesley has two degrees from the University of Delaware - a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and a Master of Arts in Urban Affairs and Public Policy.
